Match Day Profits - Introduction

Sgt Colin Introduces Match Day Profits

Hi, Sgt Colin here, with my latest review for Bettingssystemtruths.com. I am going to review Match Day Profits, a football tipping service from Phil Brown, one of the Betfan distributed services.

Phil introduces himself as a former Football Odds Compiler for bookmakers, and has been gambling professionally for 5 years.

Following an initial offer of 7 days at £1 per day, the service costs a little under £35 for 28 days, or £69 for 90 days. For that you get a daily e-mail outlining the selections. Midweek bets are sent out before 11.00 on the day, whilst weekend bets are sent out the evening before. There are not likely to be bets every day, with 7-9 expected per week.

He suggests starting with a 200 point bank. with selections likely to be 10 points per bet (although may be less). I will monitor performance based on the recommended stakes, and on level stakes (1 point bet starting with 100 points bank). The advertisement promises a high strike rate "ensuring you never go on long losing runs".

I look forward to seeing how the Match Day Profits service performs over our trial period, which will initially be 56 days, and which may be extended to 84 days if we consider that adds value.

Race Profits Australia - Introduction

March 18 2013

Sergeant Steve Introduces Race Profits Australia

Hi Bloggers,

Sgt Steve here, I have previously done reviews on LTO for Sports Betting Professor and Racing Tipsters and more recently Place Bet Pro, Cricket Tipster, Golf Betting Profits, ProBall, Hardcourt Heroes and Gambling Don. Anyway, my name is Steve and I'm 43 years old and live in Melbourne, Australia. I have been interested in betting on horses for over 20 years now and have picked up sports betting as well in the past 5 or so years. I started doing sports arbitrage full time about 6 years ago and then moved to the UK and was trading horse racing for a couple of years. Back in Australia now and am still betting in my spare time and follow a couple of systems that seem reasonably good but haven't yet led me to the Holy Grail, betting being my source of income, which is my ultimate goal. Well my ultimate goal is to get my golf handicap into single figures but you get the gist, one thing follows another.

On to the real introduction, Race Profits Australia is one of many tipping services offered through BetFan. It is offered by a guy called Jon Roberts who claims "the fascination of finding winning horses has become a major part of my life, led to making some amazing insider contacts and ultimately the unveiling of this exciting new service... "RPA - Race Profits Australia".

"My RPA service has come about after huge amount of trial and error in developing a formula that could make healthy profits from backing Australian horse racing. It's fine tuned to the point where I am willing to share the selections with a small audience of others who are equally as passionate about beating the bookies with winning bets".

The system uses three types of important criteria.

- 1 - A bespoke formula for identifying most likely 'improvers' on their next outing.
- 2 - Information is cross referenced this against a 'base rating' I have to ensure they still have enough improvement left in the rating.
- 3 - Lastly I ensure the selections are running a few certain types of race to ensure they are properly qualified with the right conditions for success.

The whole formula is based on Australian Horse Racing. Selections will generally be sent out between 10.30 pm - 12.30 am UK time.

He offers a free 7 day trial. If you're 100% happy you'll simply be subscribed to the Race Profits Australia service on a 28 day (£40 per month) or 90 day (£90) subscription.

BST Newsletter © BettingSystemTruths 2013

So in a nutshell we are subscribing to a tipping service that sends us tips via email every day and we just back them to advised stakes. Bets are advised to a certain amount of points and I will use a starting bank of 300 points (as advised) for the purpose of this review. I will be using Victorian TAB tote prices for the purpose of this review, happy to be guided though if anyone wants alternate prices (bookmaker prices are fairly weak in Australia and Betfair doesn't have the UK volumes). Prices only normally go up 20 minutes before a race during the week so would be hard to monitor at work etc.

Let the games begin!

The Form Man - Final Review

18th March 2013

Sergeant Lucian - Final Review of The Form Man

Hi Bloggers,

Allow me to bring to you final review on tipping service from SportWorld Publishing - The Form Man.

As you know from intro the service provides horse racing selections on Win and Place market around 12 selections per day. Selections can be Win only, place only or both. Proofing will use Betfair Starting Price (BSP) but it is really the buyers choice if they want to use other bookies with horse racing markets. Membership of The Form Man is £95 per month.

Now the results after 84 betting days of review:

Start Balance: 100 points

P/L: + 35.03 points

Final Balance: 135.03 points

Number of selections: 1008

Wins: 218

Hit Rate: 21.60%

Average odd on win bets: 4.86

ROI: 3.47%

The service mail delivery, support, webpage are very good but considering costs of service my opinion is that this product be classed as neutral as you must use high stakes in order to get cost covered and make a profit.

Thank you for your time and I hope you enjoy the review.

League Table of Reviews

Return

A reasonable way of comparing the performance of systems is to work out the profit (or loss) as a percentage of the starting bank. Obviously this table doesn't replace reading the reviews, because profit as %age of bank is not the only factor in judging a system. Nevertheless, it is a valid at-a-glance way of bringing the mass of data together.

The league table now includes systems that have finished their reviews as well.

We have thirty six reviews that have made a profit of over 15%.
