INTRODUCTION

Hi Folks,

As you may know, we have had a problem with a virus attack on our LayTheOdds website. While we are working behind the scenes to restore full functionality, we can only apologise for the downtime. This has affected our newsletter this week and I am only able to report the figures from our BettingSystemTruths website.

This week we have no New Reviews and one Final Review. Winning Trainers has unfortunately failed the review.

Among our Current Reviews, this week, we have seven reviews making a decent profit of over 20%, including several remarkable profit levels – we'll have to see if they can be maintained throughout the reviews.

Place Bet Pro, in particular, has had an amazing two weeks! Triple H also has had a great week. Of course, the purpose of our reviews is to see how the systems do over the full review period.

Winning Trainers - Final Review

19th February 2012

How To Bet More Like The Insiders Do...

Warning: The Biggest 'Name' Trainers Do NOT Make Profits For Punters...

Insp Tommy gives a Final Review of Winning Trainers

Hi Bloggers,

So we come to the end of the 56 day review of 'Winning Trainers' to find that they in fact 'lost'!

Basically this was a backing to win and backing each way on 'qualifying' selections where the odds range came between certain limits.

The qualifiers came from a list of 24 'super trainers' whose record in certain types of races had shown a very good level of profitability over the last 3 years or so.

In the pdf file, The 'dirty two dozen' super trainers report, we received a full list of the 24 trainers with a 'pay special attention' section on each trainer as to which particular races to target based on various factors such as class, going, jockey, distance, etc.

The cost of the service is £19.99 per month + VAT of course. You can alternatively get 3 months for £39.99 + VAT.

As you can see from the final figures below, we ended up with big negatives for both banks, especially the EW bank, losing over half of it after 56 days.

Despite quite a good start with a few winners, the service never really got going and we were always trying to catch up with our losses.

For these reasons I have to put 'Winning Trainers' into the failed section.

Bank 1. Win only (1000 pts)

Level Stakes staking plan:

Start Balance: 1,000 points

Running Balance: 750.74 points

Bank 2. Each way (1000pts)

Level Stakes staking plan:

Start Balance: 1,000 points

Running Balance: 430.93 points

All the best, Inspector Tommy reviewing Winning Trainers.

League Table of Current Reviews

Return

A reasonable way of comparing the performance of systems is to work out the profit (or loss) as a percentage of the starting bank. Obviously this table doesn't replace reading the reviews, because profit as %age of bank is not the only factor in judging a system. Nevertheless, it is a valid at-a-glance way of bringing the mass of data together.

I've colour coded the reviews that are the currently most successful, with the colour of their profitability graph (next newsletter section) to make them easier to spot.

We have seven reviews making a decent profit of over 20%, including several remarkable profit levels – we'll have to see if they can be maintained throughout the reviews.

Profitability Graph

Return to Contents/Index

Here is a graph of the profit being made by the front-runners as a percentage of their starting bank. This gives a week by week comparative view of their progress.

It gives a representation of the volatility or dependability of each system. Ideally we would want a graph that increased each week by roughly the same amount. If a system or tipping service could produce that, then we would really have a winning review!

Place Bet Pro, in particular, has had an amazing two weeks! Triple H also has had a great week. Of course the purpose of our reviews is to see how the systems do over the full review period.
