INTRODUCTION

Hi Folks,

A quiet week, just one Final Review – Power Naps – failed.

I've taken out from the Current Reviews, those reviews that have not reported any results for many weeks. They'll go back in if any further results are reported.

The results, league table and profitability graph include Monday evening reports, making the newsletter as up to date as possible when you receive the newsletter on the Wednesday morning.

Well Turf Wars couldn't keep going up every week, but it still shows a fantastic 206% profit!

Power Naps - Final Review

11th June 2011

Sergeant Tommy-
Reviews Power
Naps

Return to Contents/Index of this newsletter

Hi Bloggers,

So another service, Power Naps, promises 'WINS THAT MAKE YOU JUMP OUT OF YOUR SEAT!!!' So, did we jump out of our seats? Well no, we were more likely to jump out of the window, as Power Naps comes to an end with a total loss of – 68.62 pts!

Not since day 66 of the trial has the service been in profit and that has been over a period of approximately 3 weeks where we have made this loss. In fact after day 45 Power Naps was cruising along nicely at + 66 pts profit, so they have lost around 134 pts in the last 39 days of the review!

So in fact you could argue that for the first 66 days of the trial, it was actually doing quite well with some nice priced winners coming in. Unfortunately for Power Naps, but maybe ultimately good news for our discerning bloggers, is that the review period has shown that even excellent profits at day 45 cannot guarantee longer term profits.

Disappointingly, in my opinion, there has been a distinct shortage of feedback from the 'full time racing enthusiast and professional bettor working with another racing expert', as to why these tips from Power Naps have been so bad recently. In fact there has been ZERO input throughout the length of the review! I know some people prefer it that way, just get the selections and no BS, win or lose, but you would have thought that after such a spectacular crash, something would have been said?

So taking all these facts into account, I have no option but to place 'Power Naps' into the failed and Jailed section.

All the best, Sgt Tommy

This section covers all the current reviews being conducted and gives a quick insight how each review is performing. I have now described which type of service each one is.

Systems: These are a set of rules that are used to make selection criteria. These rules are hard and fast without room for interpretation or discretion.

Methods or Strategies: These services are based upon loose rules or advices that are applied, with skill, by the user of the service.

Tips: You receive tips from the service provider of back or lay bets and you back the tips to the recommended stakes or to level stakes.

League Table of Current Reviews

Return to Contents/Index of this newsletter

The systems under review have different starting banks, different stakes and some systems have variable stakes. A reasonable way of comparing the performance of systems is to work out the profit (or loss) as a percentage of the starting bank.

I've colour coded the reviews that are the currently most successful, with the colour of their profitability graph to make them easier to spot.

Sprint Lay Expert has improved again this week. Betfair Success Formula and Betting Profits are going to be inactive until the new football season. Turf Wars, despite a loss this week, is still easily top of the table.

Obviously this table doesn't replace reading the reviews, because profit as %age of bank is not the only factor in judging a system. Nevertheless, I think it gives a valid comparison and an at-a-glance way of bringing the mass of data together.

System Reviewed	Start Bank	Total Profit /Loss	Profit as %age of Bank	Position Last Week	Position This Week
Turf Wars Staking System	100	205.95	205.95%	1	1
Sprint Lay Expert	1000	813.00	81.30%	3	2
Backing Star Plan C	100	59.95	59.95%	6	3
Betfair Success Formula	100	59.64	59.64%	2	4
Betting Profits Soccer	1000	446.62	44.66%	4	5
The Low Lay	20	6.63	33.15%	7	6
RebelBetting	2000	355.75	17.79%	5	7
Full Time Betting Income	200	10.09	5.05%	9	8
My Lucky 15	200	-4.23	-2.12%	12	9
Laying Summer Profits	2000	-164.00	-8.20%	11	10
The Legacy & Saver System	100	-12.70	-12.70%	14	11
Lay Hounds 8/1	50	-6.91	-13.82%	13	12
2020 Cricket Trading	2500	-506.30	-20.25%	19	13
Lay Hounds <=11.0	50	-11.66	-23.32%	17	14
BackandLay	1000	-280.60	-28.06%	18	15
Power Naps	200	-68.62	-34.31%	21	16
The BetPlan Staking Plan	1000	-443.11	-44.31%	15	17
Rate The Races Strategy 2	100	-60.63	-60.63%	10	18
Rate The Races Strategy 1	100	-64.95	-64.95%	22	19

Profitability Graph

Return to Contents/Index of this newsletter ↩

Here is a graph of the profit being made by the front-runners as a percentage of their starting bank. This gives a week by week comparative view of their progress.

It gives a representation of the volatility or dependability of each system. Ideally we would want a graph that increased each week by roughly the same amount. If a system or tipping service could produce that, then we would really have a winning review!

It couldn't keep going up every week! Turf Wars profit actually went down this week! Sprint Lay Expert has roller-coastered back into contention. Backing Star made a profitable spurt at the end of its review period.

Admin, Gordon has requested suggestions from readers for Systems, Strategies and Tipping Services they would like to see reviewed. Just send the suggestions to me, at my usual address, rich@bettingssystemtruths.com and I'll pass them on to him.

Hello Rich, may I suggest reviewing BETALAY,, as it seems it is being used by the GHBot
Regards
Graham McLaine

Gordon is looking at Betalay to see if we are going to review it. Thanks for the suggestion
