INTRODUCTION

Hi Folks,

The LayTheOdds website is now back up and running, so our reviews are coming back up to date. Once again, please accept our apologies for the difficulties over the past few weeks.

This week we have two New Reviews and one Final Review.

Among our Current Reviews, this week, Betting Bubbles and Place Bet Pro have had a great week. The Partners in Profit review is suspended for a while due to illness. I'm sure I speak for all of us when we wish our reviewer Nige a speedy recovery. Also BettingFlow is suspended as the reviewer has gone out of contact for the time being.

We'd like to hear from you, please contact me by e-mail via the Bloggers Corner at rich@bettingsystemtruths.com

Value At The Races - Introduction

21st March 2011

Insp Lucian Introduces Value At The Races

Hi Bloggers,

Let me introduces to you a new horse tipping service review. Code name - Value At The Races - tipping horse service member of Winning Information Network. The tips come from Ed.

Ed has provided this service with good results so far. Starting in 31st October 2011 and till Wednesday 21st March 2012 the profit is over 760 points.

The service is limited by up to 200 members and the price is 40 pounds per 28 days without VAT.

Staking Plan - 500 Point starting Bank, divide bank by 500 to give a 1 point value. Will be advise, on email selections, how many points to stake. On each bet usual bets will be 10 Points Win Bets or 5 Points Each Way Bets. Tips will be delivered mid-morning by e mail.

Also I'll use a level stakes bank of 100 points with 1 point on win bet and 0.5 point on Each Way bets.

Thank you for your time and I hope you have enjoyed the review.

Regards,

Paul Morris Football Introduction

23rd March 2012

Ins Chris reviews Paul Morris Football

Hi bloggers, Insp Chris here.

Welcome to the Paul Morris Football review, a tipping service coming from the Betfan arsenal.

As the title suggests the product deals with football only and more especially with the win market for English Football Leagues.

The selections are sent via e-mail by mid-day on days when there are bets. A second option for receiving the information is by logging in the Betfan Tipping Centre and collecting the tips.

All the bets are placed by using a very simple staking plan: If the team we are advised to back plays at home, then we make a 6 pts bet. On the other hand if our team plays away then the bet is for 3 pts. The vendor suggests that a 100 pts bank is enough and that's what we are going to use. Also, a separate bank of 100 pts will be used to provide us with results if betting on level stakes only. It should be an interesting comparison.

But what results has the tipster produced so far? According to results proofed to Betfan, the total profit for the first two months of 2012 was more than promising, as it reached 91,17 pts. All the bets are placed in the most well-known online bookies (Bet365, Ladbrokes, Coral, William Hill etc.). This exciting start of the year is the reason for launching the product before it's OFFICIAL release at this summer. The monthly subscription untill the end of the season will be £45 or an once paid fee of £99 if you wish to join the service for the season remainder. Should the official release takes place then the subscription will rise to £99 per month. [\[Click Here To See Paul Morris Football\]](#)

Winning Trainers - Final Review

19th February 2012

How To Bet More Like The Insiders Do...

Warning: The Biggest 'Name' Trainers Do NOT Make Profits For Punters...

Insp Tommy gives a Final Review of Winning Trainers

Hi Bloggers,

So we come to the end of the 56 day review of 'Winning Trainers' to find that they in fact 'lost'!

Basically this was a backing to win and backing each way on 'qualifying' selections where the odds range came between certain limits.

The qualifiers came from a list of 24 'super trainers' whose record in certain types of races had shown a very good level of profitability over the last 3 years or so.

In the pdf file, The 'dirty two dozen' super trainers report, we received a full list of the 24 trainers with a 'pay special attention' section on each trainer as to which particular races to target based on various factors such as class, going, jockey, distance, etc.

The cost of the service is £19.99 per month + VAT of course. You can alternatively get 3 months for £39.99 + VAT.

As you can see from the final figures below, we ended up with big negatives for both banks, especially the EW bank, losing over half of it after 56 days.

Despite quite a good start with a few winners, the service never really got going and we were always trying to catch up with our losses.

For these reasons I have to put 'Winning Trainers' into the failed section.

Bank 1. Win only (1000 pts)

Level Stakes staking plan:

Start Balance: 1,000 points

Running Balance: 750.74 points

Bank 2. Each way (1000pts)

Level Stakes staking plan:

Start Balance: 1,000 points

Running Balance: 430.93 points

All the best, Inspector Tommy reviewing Winning Trainers.

This is a quick insight how each review is performing. The data in Blue is from BettingSystemTruths. The data in Dark Violet is from LayTheOdds.

Systems: These are a set of rules that are used to make selection criteria. These rules are hard and fast without room for interpretation or discretion.

Methods or Strategies: These services are based upon loose rules or advices that are applied, with skill, by the user of the service.

Tips: You receive tips from the service provider of back or lay bets and you back the tips to the recommended stakes or to level stakes.

League Table of Current Reviews

Return

A reasonable way of comparing the performance of systems is to work out the profit (or loss) as a percentage of the starting bank. Obviously this table doesn't replace reading the reviews, because profit as %age of bank is not the only factor in judging a system. Nevertheless, it is a valid at-a-glance way of bringing the mass of data together.

I've colour coded the reviews that are the currently most successful, with the colour of their profitability graph (next newsletter section).

Betting Bubbles and Place Bet Pro have done very well, this week. The Partners in Profit review is suspended for a while and also BettingFlow.

Profitability Graph

Return to Contents/Index

Here is a graph of the profit being made by the front-runners as a percentage of their starting bank. This gives a week by week comparative view of their progress.

It gives a representation of the volatility or dependability of each system. Ideally we would want a graph that increased each week by roughly the same amount. If a system or tipping service could produce that, then we would really have a winning review!

Betting Bubbles and Place Bet Pro have had a great week.
